vhs Mission Statement

We are the municipal continuing education center for all Leipzig residents. We offer our courses together with around 750 freelance course leaders. We link our traditions, which date back to the Enlightenment and workers' education, with the present and the future.

We stand for

lifelong learning, a wide range of high-quality educational opportunities, the combination of education, communication and experience, individual advice and competent service as well as socially acceptable remuneration.

We submit

educational opportunities for all-round and professional development, interesting leisure activities and opportunities to get to know other people, their ideas and experiences.

The Old Stock Exchange on the Naschmarkt is Leipzig's oldest baroque building. Built in 1678 by Leipzig merchants, it served as a representative meeting place for 200 years.

Grundtvig Award and Rita Süssmuth Award Ceremony at Alte Börse (The Old Stock Exchange)

Celebrating excellence and innovation in adult education, this year focusing on the theme of Flexible Learning Pathways.

International partnerships to strengthen democracy and participation.

The Old Town Hall is a historic building in Leipzig city center. This city landmark is located directly on the market square.

What to see

Leipzig's most famous monument, The Monument to the Battle of the Nations, commemorates the decisive battle in October 1813 against Napoleon in the autumn of 1813, which was fought in the fields around Leipzig.

Philipp Kirschner

The Schiller House is the oldest literary memorial in Germany. Schiller worked here on his works in the summer of 1785.
